

Cuprins

Preface.....	7
Intellectual Cooperation – Romanian Personalities and Contributions; Women’s Role in Cultural and Scientific Diplomacy	9
H.E. Amb. Simona-Mirela Miculescu
A Century of International Intellectual Cooperation. Romanian Presence and Contributions.....	13
Prof. univ. dr. Mircea Duțu
A Major Romanian Contribution to Promoting International Intellectual Cooperation and Peace Through Law: The Initiative of Creating the Hague Academy of International Law	40
Prof. univ. dr. Mircea Duțu
A Personality of International Intellectual Cooperation. Vespasian V. Pella, Founder of International Criminal Law, Promoter of the Unification of Criminal Law, Architect of International Criminal Justice	54
Prof. univ. dr. Mircea Duțu
George Oprescu and the Intellectual Cooperation Organization of the League of Nations. A Biographical Perspective (1923–1938)	80
Ioana Apostol
The Cold War, Communist Romania, and the Political Context of Admission to UNESCO	107
Paul Nistor
UNESCO, Romania, and Cold War Cultural Diplomacy: Scholarly Exchanges and Global Impact.....	125
Andrei-Dumitru Olteanu
Ligia and Pompiliu Macovei, representatives of Romania at UNESCO	140
Cosmin Năsui
Intellectual prestige and political compromise: Andrei Oțetea’s activity at UNESCO in the second half of the 1960s.....	169
Marian I. Hariuc
Marthe Bibesco, La Nympe Europe Documentary	185
Sabina Pop	