

Edited by
Cosmin GOIAN

Teaching social work practice

Assistant Editor:

Loredana Marcela TRANCĂ

Authors:

Cosmin GOIAN

Loreni BACIU

Aurora Carmen BĂRBAT

Andreea Georgiana BIRNEANU

Ramona BRAN

Theofild LAZĂR

Patricia Luciana RUNCAN

Adrian PĂȘCUȚĂ

Carmen STANCIU

Mihaela TOMIȚĂ

Loredana Marcela TRANCĂ

Florina-Luiza VLAICU

Translation:

Florina-Luiza VLAICU

Ramona BRAN

Edited by
Cosmin GOIAN

TEACHING SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE

Coordonator al colecției
ȘTIINȚE PSIHO-SOCIALE: Mihaela Tomiță

Copyright © 2013, Editura Pro Universitaria

Toate drepturile asupra prezentei ediții aparțin
Editurii Pro Universitaria

Nicio parte din acest volum nu poate fi copiată fără acordul scris al
Editurii Pro Universitaria

Descrierea CIP a Bibliotecii Naționale a României

GOIAN, COSMIN

Teaching social work practice / Cosmin Goian. –
București : Pro Universitaria, 2013

Bibliogr.

ISBN 978-606-647-887-8

36(075.8)

AUTHORS:

Cosmin GOIAN, Associate professor, Faculty of Sociology and Psychology, West University of Timișoara, Romania. Social worker BSW - graduate of the West University of Timișoara (1999), PhD in Philosophy (2007) from the Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iasi.

Since November 29, 2011, Head of the Social Work Department – University of the West. September 15, 2008 – November 29, 2011, Vice dean of the Faculty of Sociology and Psychology, University of the West, Timișoara. Since June 2008 – President of National Association of Social Workers – Timis branch Romania. 2000-2001 – President of Social Worker’s Association Banat. His relevant publications: Theoretical perspectives upon social work discourse in Romania (2012); Semantic analysis of the dynamics of the social work language applied in Romania (2012); Semiotics and social work (2007); Skills in social work (2004)

Loreni BACIU, graduate of the West University of Timisoara, currently works as an Lecturer at the West University of Timisoara (Romania). She received her PhD from the West University of Timisoara in 2010 with a thesis on the complementarity between the public and private organizations from the Western Region of Romania, within the context of social services provision. She has published mainly social sciences research papers in Romanian and international Journals and also published and co-edited books with various topics in the area of social work. Among the latest releases she edited, “Youth Employment: Challenges and Opportunities” stands out, as a collection of papers gathered from 55 authors and co-authors, from 11 countries around the world. Currently, her professional interests are focused on two areas: the collaboration between the public and private sectors and the policies and practices in youth employment.

Aurora Carmen BĂRBAT, M.D., PhD – Physician, general medicine (1993, University for Medicine and Pharmacy “Victor Babes”, Timișoara, Romania) / Dipl. in Caritas Science and Christian Social Work (2002, Albert Ludwig-University, Freiburg i. Br., Germany), works as senior lecturer at West University of Timișoara, Faculty for Sociology and Psychology, Department for Social Work. She obtained her PhD title (Doctor in Medical Sciences) in 2009 at the University for Medicine and Pharmacy “Victor Babes”); has published 3 books, ca. 40 articles & chapter books in scientific (inter)national volumes and journals, covering areas such as social medicine, social work, drug use, coping with cancer, religion as coping. Has also a lot of participations at national and international socio-medical and psycho-spiritual trainings, research programs and conferences, has organized scientific events, being member of Romanian and international scientific organizations.

Andreea Georgiana BÎRNEANU, is currently works as an Junior Lecturer at the West University of Timișoara (Romania), Faculty of Sociology and Psychology, Department of Social Work since 2008. She is licensed in Social Work and Psychology and she continued her studies graduating the program masters in Clinical Psychology and Management in Social Work. Her interests are in the field of child protection and she has a PhD in Sociology from the University of the West in Timișoara (Romania) in 2012.

Ramona BRAN, has been teaching English for Specific Purposes at the West University of Timișoara for 9 years. She has a B.A. in English and French Philology, and an M.A. in British and American Studies. She has recently finished a PhD in American Studies at the University of Dortmund, Germany. Her thesis is an interdisciplinary work, tackling American literature from a cultural studies’ perspective. Ramona Bran has presented and published tens of scientific papers and articles, and has elaborated several courses of English for her students in social work, psychology, and sociology. Her fields of interest include British and American literature, as well as cultural, social, and political studies. She is a member of RSEAS (The Romanian Society for English and American Studies) and of RAAS (The Romanian Association for American Studies). At the same time she is the managing editor of The Journal of Social Informatics and co-editor of The Journal of Gerontological Social Work, both edited by the West University of Timisoara.

Theofild LAZĂR, graduate of the West University of Timișoara, currently works as an Senior Lecturer at the West University of Timisoara (Romania).

He received his PhD from the West University of Timisoara in 2010 with a thesis on rural community development. He has published mainly social sciences research papers in Romanian and international Journals and also published and co-edited books with various topics in the area of social work. His professional interests are focused on two areas: community development and vulnerable groups employment strategies.

Patricia-Luciana RUNCAN, currently works as a Senior Lecturer at the West University of Timișoara (Romania). She holds a BA in Sociology from the same University, a BA in Law from the “Tibiscus” University of Timișoara, and a PhD in Sociology from the West University of Timișoara. Her main areas of interest include social work and sociology. She authored Depression in the Elderly (2013) and Supervision in Educational, Social and Medical Services Professions (2013), and co-edited Risks and Opportunities in the Romanian Social Work System (2011) and Applied Social Sciences: Social Work (2013).

Adrian PĂȘCUȚĂ, he holds a BA in Economical Sciences, a MA in Sociology of Political and Administrative Institutions, is PhD in sociology from 2010 and currently is lecturer at the West University of Timisoara, Romania, Faculty of Sociology and Psychology, Department of Social Work. His professional interests are focused on the areas: sociology, minority groups, public and social policies, employment policies. His publications include over 20 scholarly articles and several chapters in books.

Carmen STANCIU, is Ph.D. in sociology, obtained the PhD title at the Univ. of Bucharest, Romania. Currently she is lecturer at West University of Timisoara, Department of Social Work, Faculty of Sociology and Psychology. Her current areas of interest are gerontological social work and management in social services. In this direction, it is worth noting that she is the main editor of the Journal of Gerontological Social Work, West University of Timisoara Publishing and is also the Executive Coordinator of the International Conference of Gerontological Social Work.

Mihaela TOMIȚĂ, currently works as a Associate professor at West University of Timisoara, Faculty of Sociology and Psychology, Department of Social Work. Her current areas of interest include restorative justice, alternative sanctions, victims' protection, sociology of deviance and delinquency, human rights, probation, law in social work, criminal justice. She is the initiator of the SPECTO international conferences and the coordinator of the Second World Congress on Resilience. She is also the Head of the Regional Prevention, Evaluation and Anti-drug Counseling Center from Timișoara. Her relevant publications include Working with offenders (2013); A positive and supportive approach for aggressive adolescents. Promoting the Resilience of Youth Delinquent (2013); Probation as a Field of Study. Institution and Profession (2012) and over 60 scholarly articles and several chapters in books.

Loredana Marcela TRANCĂ, is currently a junior lecturer at the Social Work Department of the West University of Timișoara, Romania. She holds a BA (2006) in Social Work, a MA (2008) in Management of Social Work and a PhD (2011) in Sociology from the West University of Timișoara, Romania. She coordinates the students' field practice and she is also the director of the Christian Association For Help from Timișoara. Her main research interests are human rights, work addiction, social work with families, social work with disabled people and values in social work. Her publications include over 40 scholarly articles and several chapters in books. Has also a lot of participations at national and international trainings and conferences. She was member of the organizing committee of national and international conferences and also member of Romanian and international scientific organizations.

Florina-Luiza VLAICU, is currently social worker and a master course student in the "Management in Social Work" program, Social Work Department, Faculty of Sociology and Psychology, West University of Timișoara. She completed the undergraduate studies in the same Department. Current areas of interest are field placement, social work for persons who have a substance dependence, management, social work theories and methods.

„I hear and I forget,
I see and I remember,
I do and I understand.“
Confucius

