

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. Semi-Presidentialism Across Continents: a Dialogue Between Asia and Europe

Semi-Presidentialism Across Continents: a Dialogue Between Asia and Europe Da-Chi Liao .....	7
Duverger's Arguments on Semi-Presidentialism: a Critical Analysis Eric Millard .....	11
Conflicting Revisions to Romanian Constitution Give Rise to Questions about Semi-Presidentialism Elena-Simina Tănăsescu .....	35
The European Models of Semi-Presidentialism: the Peculiarity of Romania's Post-Communist System of Government Bogdan Dima .....	60
Parliamentary Oversight in "Atypical Foreign Affairs" under Semi-presidentialism – a Comparison of the French National Assembly, Romania's Parliament and Taiwan's Legislative Yuan Da-Chi Liao, Yueh-Ching Chen .....	83

II. Articles

The Forms of Direct Democracy and Their Role in Ensuring Good Governance Ramona Delia Popescu .....	126
Towards a Legal Theory of Nationalization. Controversies of Company Law History in Central and Eastern Europe Emőd Veress .....	185

III. Book Reviews

Advanced Introduction to Comparative Constitutional Law, by Mark Tushnet Reviewed by Ramona Delia Popescu .....	202
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

IV. Events

Financing Of Law Faculties: Annual Conference and General Assembly of the European Law Faculty Association (ELFA), Strasbourg, 2014 Bianca Selejan-Guțan .....	214
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----